RAZORSYNC™ MOBILE FIELD SERVICE MANAGEMENT SOFTWARE RECOGNIZED WITH GOLD AWARD IN 2013 AMERICAN BUSINESS AWARDSSM

Minneapolis, MN – September 17, 2013 – RazorSync, LLC, leading provider of mobile field management software, was given top honor and awarded the Gold Stevie® Award at last night’s prestigious 11th Annual American Business Awards celebration held in San Francisco.

Recognized in the Integrated Mobile Experience category, RazorSync was among 3,200 nominations submitted and judged by 320 executives nationwide. Key achievements that led to RazorSync’s success include robust functionality, ongoing enhancements to the product offering, a new tablet app that provides an optimal experience for in-field use, exceptional customer service and support, and a level of affordability that makes the product accessible to every business regardless of size.

“This is really a tribute to the entire team,” said Christopher Rywelski, vice president of product marketing at RazorSync. “We work hard to deliver a valuable solution to our customers. Being recognized with the Gold is a great acknowledgement of our efforts.”

RazorSync has fast become the powerful tool of choice for small- and medium-sized field service companies looking to instantly connect the office to the field, effortlessly schedule and dispatch work orders, enhance customer management and communication, and shorten the billing cycle to get paid faster.
